

OPENING DAY FOR LITTLE SABLE LIGHTHOUSE
SATURDAY, MAY 13, 2006
FIRST DAY FOR PUBLIC TOURS OF THE LIGHTHOUSE

At the door of the Lighthouse DAVID DIETRICH whose painting of the early 1911 Lighthouse & keepers quarters hangs on the front wall of the lighthouse is greeted by YVONNE KESSLER a member of the LIGHTHOUSE seekers. This group was the motivating force behind the opening of this lighthouse. David Dietrich's great-great Uncle James Davenport was the first keeper of the Little Sable Point Light in 1873-1879.

OPENING DAY AT LITTLE SABLE LIGHTHOUSE MAY 13, 2006

Top: David Dietrich, Craig Renny & Yvonne Keesler. Below left, May Dietrich at the entrance, right center Robert Sperling & Craig Renny

